CODE OF ETHICS:

Codes of Ethics are a useful way of communicating an organization's philosophy to all levels of the organization. They can set the boundaries of behavior and offer guidelines to everyone involved. Often all involved within an organization are asked to sign a code of ethics to show a commitment to them. The following samples of Codes of Ethics are taken from examples developed by the National Alliance For Youth Sports.

Youth Sports Administrators:

I hereby pledge to provide positive support to all youth sports programs in my community, to administer youth sports programs with professionalism and in the best interests of the children involved by following the Youth Sports Administrators' Code of Ethics:

*I will run youth sports programs for the children involved, not the adults.
I will ensure that I am knowledgeable in the area of youth sports administration.
I will do my best to provide a safe playing situation for all participants.
I will provide support for coaches, officials and parents to provide a positive, enjoyable experience for all.
I will require all coaches and officials to be trained in the responsibilities of being a volunteer within the organization and that they uphold the NYSCAINYSOA Codes of Ethics.
I will implement and enforce the National Standards For Youth Sports.
I promise to keep informed about current issues involving youth sports programs.*

Coaches':

I hereby pledge to live up to my certification as a NYSCA Coach by following the NYSCA Coaches' Code of Ethics:

*I will place the emotional and physical well-being of my athletes ahead of a personal desire to win.
I will treat each athlete as an individual, remembering the large range of emotional and physical development for the same age group.
I will do my best to provide a safe playing situation for my athletes.
I will promise to review and practice basic first aid principles needed to treat injuries of my athletes.
I will do my best to organize practices that are fun and challenging for all my athletes.
I will lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all my athletes.*
